STEVEN JACKSON

Clarinet

Clarinetist Steven Jackson has extensive chamber music and orchestral experience throughout the United States. He has performed with Rudolf Serkin, Leonard Bernstein, Felix Galimir, Frederica Von Stade, and the New Zealand String Quartet.

He appeared with the Boston Symphony and as principal clarinetist of the Boston Pops, Boston Ballet, Springfield Symphony, Rhode Island Philharmonic, Boston Lyric Opera, and touring orchestras for the Royal Ballet Company of Great Britain, Diana Krall, and Linda Ronstadt. He participated in Marlboro, Tanglewood, Monadnock, and Blossom summer festivals and premiered works of many contemporary composers, including Elliott Carter, Gyorgy Kurtag, Ralph Shapey, and Meyer Kupferman.

As soloist, Mr. Jackson has performed concerti of Elliott Carter, Aaron Copland, Mozart, and Weber, among others. While a student of Boston University, he was recognized for special achievement in performance by the National Endowment for the Arts and the BU Tanglewood Institute. His primary teachers include Harold Wright and John Bruce Yeh. He can be heard on the CRI, Dorian, Gasparo, Marlboro Recording Society, and Sony Classical labels.
